Sindo, Sido and Modo Islands Jangbongdo island

It takes only 10 minutes from the Sammok Quay to reach three islands of Sindo, Sido, and Modo Islands. Many tourists ride bicycles here. In Jangbongdo island, you can enjoy camping, trekking, and wetlands experiences.

Sido Island Sugi Beach

Deokjeokdo Island

Deokjeokdo Island offers various activities such as trekking, fun on the beach, and sea fishing, as well as convenient facilities including accommodation and rental car services. Many people visit this tourist recreation area as it takes only about an hour from Yeonan Pier Ferry Terminal.

Neungdong Pebble Beach

Daeijakdo Island

The blue sea seen from the top of Buasan Mountain and the mirage 'Puldeung' that appears above the sea only during the ebb tide are the highlights of the Daeijakdo Island. A huge sandy plain near the Soijakdo Island creates a stunning spectacle.

Puldeung

Seungbongdo Island

This place is called Seungbongdo because it resembles a phoenix flying in. There are exquisite rocks and sandy beaches as its name implies. Many trekkers visit this place to travel around the island.

Namdaerunbaw Rock

Baengnyeongdo Island

From this northernmost island of the west sea, Baengnyeongdo Island, you can see Jangsangot in North Korea on a clear day. Recognized as Baengnyeong and Daecheong Geopark in 2019, it has attracted a lot of attention. It is famous for Baengnyeongdo-style cold noodles, and fermented sand eel.

Dumujin

Daecheongdo Island · Socheongdo Island

Geologic highlights of ancient mysteries spread throughout the island. The beautiful blue coastline spans as far as you can see. While trekking, you will catch yourself stopping captivated by the scenery.

Daecheongdo Island Seopungbaji

Yeonpyeongdo Island

This place used to be the best fishery for yellow corbina in Korea. With the Manghyang Observatory, which you can take a closer look at North Korea, and the Peace Park to memorialize a victim of Battle of Yeonpyeong, it has now become a famous place for peace and security awareness tourism.

Garachilgi Beach

Seonjaedo Island · Youngheungdo Island

You can go to these islands without taking a boat because they are connected by bridge. If you are looking for a casual island trip, this is your best option. You can also enjoy the wide-open seas and enjoy a dish of fresh raw fish by car.

Seonjaedo Mokseom Island

Best Tips!

- Water and snacks There are convenience stores in most islands, so take only necessary items with you.
- Accommodations You can stay overnight in pensions or B&Bs without any difficulty, but make sure to prepare for toiletries for yourself.
- Drug store There is a medical center, but you are advised to prepare for emergency medicine.
- Car Rental You may use a rental car only in Baengnyeongdo Island and Deokjeokdo Island.

Time Travel to the Modern Times Open Port Area

With the opening of Jemulpo Port in 1883, modern open port streets were created in Incheon. Currently, it is popular among many visitors thanks to its museums and exhibition hall, hotels and unique cafe streets where they can understand and feel the old times.

Little China in Incheon Chinatown

With the opening of the Incheon Port, the Qing Dynasty Concession area was established in Chinatown. The streets are filled with colorful buildings in Chinese style, harmonizing red and gold colors. It is also a pleasure to taste Korean-style Chinese cuisines and various street foods.

The Sea of Joyful Memory Wolmido Island

When stepping into Wolmido Island, your heart becomes wide open. You can relax looking at the endless ocean and enjoy a walk along the waterfront. Wolmido Island is a popular tourist destination of Incheon, where history, culture and entertainment harmonize together.

Modern and pleasant urban travel Songdo International City

As the center of the Incheon Free Economic Zone, it is a world-class city with 15 international organizations. As such, the cityscape is modern and beautiful. The eye-catching architecture creates a sophisticated urban atmosphere, and the nation's top-class green areas and parks give the city a fresh color.

Travel to the sky Yeongjongdo Island

Yeongjongdo Island, where Incheon International Airport is located, is the face of Korea. While hoping to make a leap into a hub city of Northeast Asia, the island has its own soothing colors. You can enjoy a relaxing moment while island trekking or driving along the beach and watching the sunset in the beach and port.

Colorful waterside travel along waterways Gyeongin Ara Waterway

A scenic view such as an observation deck, a waterfall, and a sculpture park spread out around the waterway connecting the Han River and the West Sea. You can go on a cruise along the waterway or experience water activities such as kayak, yacht, etc. The bike paths on both sides of the waterway are good place to ride a bicycle and the hiking trail is available for slow walking.

Non-stop shopping tour Bupyeong-gu

In Bupyeong, you should be careful not to lose track of time and road. The world's largest underground shopping mall, traditional markets on the ground, and a variety of restaurants are all eye-catching places, so you often do not know when to leave. A day in Bupyeong, a shopping paradise, is full of food and entertainment.

A trip full of uniqueness Namdong-gu

Namdong-gu is a place where 'coexistence' is well suited. Major administrative agencies, department stores, and commercial centers are widely developed, and the natural environment including mountains, fields, wetlands and the sea are well harmonized with industrial complexes. You can experience diversity wherever you go.

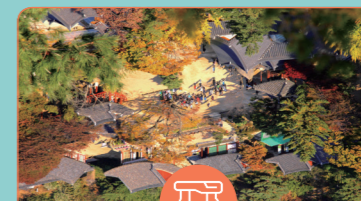

Time travel to a distant memory Dong-gu

Dong-gu keeps the modern times of the past in the alleys. While walking around this area, you may feel like time has stopped. So it is more relaxing and friendly.

Educational tour to learn traditional culture Michuhol-gu

In Michuhol-gu, you can find the Incheon of the Joseon Dynasty. Incheon Dohobu Government Office and Incheonhyanggyo Confucian School is a good space for traditional cultural experience where the whole family can spend leisure time together.

Unique travel filled with diverse attractions Ganghwa Island (Gyodongdo Island)

With all the charms of the island and the land, Ganghwa Island offers a variety of tourism attractions such as history, culture, experience, outing, entertainment, and many others. In Gyodongdo Island, there are traces of old times as if time had stopped. This special atmosphere brings many people to Gyodongdo Island.

Healing Island with Beautiful Sunset Seokmodo Island

With amazing harmony of mountains, sea, and sea-side village, Seokmodo Island is accessible by car at any time. You can enjoy mineral hot springs, recreation forests, and beaches, as well as a beautiful sunset at one place.
