Mysterious trails of islands in Incheon

Mirage created by wind and wave

Puldeung (grassy sandbank), Daeijakdo island

Access by Boat

One of the best sceneries on Daeijakdo Island is the 'Puldeung,' the grassy sandbank that can be seen at low tide. The grassy sandbank, made of hard sand, appears and disappears like a submarine and is mysterious and beautiful, like a mirage. The grassy sandbank is about 3.6 km from east to west and about 1.2 km from north to south. It appears in a different shape each time, depending on the waves and winds of the sea. It can be observed most closely from the pavilion along the coastal trail at Jageunpuran Beach.

Seonjaedo island

Access by Car

Seonjaedo Island is an island located between Yeongheungdo and Daebudo Islands. It is a famous drive course because it can be accessed without a boat. If you go down the Seonjae Bridge connected to Daebudo Island, there is a coastal trail that starts at the Seonjae Fishing Village and goes to Mokseom Island. When you go to the back of the island, you can see a vast horizon stretching out endlessly.

Miracle of Moses in Korea

Soyado island

Access by Boat

A 1.3 km sea trail connecting Gatseom, Gandet, and Mulpure Islands appears around Soyado Island, which is connected to the south of Deokjeokdo Island by a bridge. It is called the Miracle of Moses in the modern version because it splits the sea. Seashells form a massive pile between Gotseom Island and Gandetseom Island, and fantastically shaped rocks are scattered throughout the scenery. The road connecting the islands is filled up quickly. Check the tide before visiting.

Healing sea trail refreshing the heart
Yeongjong dullegil course 3

Seaside Park

Yeongjong International City has Yeongjong Dullegil, where you can see the mountains, sea, and city. Of the three courses, Course 3 healing Badatgil (healing coastal trail) offers a view of the sea while walking on the path, as the name suggests. In particular, Seaside Park, which is divided into five themes, is charming. The park has an observatory, an artificial rock wall waterfall, a fountain, and a salt farm theme garden. You will never get bored while walking. Another attraction is the park's topography, which runs along the sea. Wolmido Island and Incheon Bridge clearly spread out before you, and you can sometimes see the blue waves and vast tidal flats.

A trail where the sea meets the field
Yedanpo dullegil

Yedanpo Dullegil has a slow slope that allows you to walk comfortably. The trail is not too long and good to walk with children. The course starts by climbing the wooden stairs right next to Yedanpo Wharf. If you climb up the refreshing forest tunnel to a point, an open view spreads out. There is a path along the field, and wooden fences add to the charm of the landscape. A calm sea stretches out to the side. The trail is getting famous through word of mouth while being referred to as 'Jeju in Incheon.' The observatory is the perfect place to watch the sea turning red at sunset.

Island and sea tour trail

Access by Car

Island and Sea Tour Trail

A deck was built along the island's coast next to Hanagae Beach. It is an island and sea tour trail where you can take a walk over the sea with blue waves waving under your feet. In particular, the view of the seawater crashing against the cliff is spectacular. Fantastically shaped rocks and columnar joints are spread out on the other side. In addition to 12 fantastically shaped stones such as Saja Bawi (Lion Rock), Haembeogeo Bawi (Hamburger Rock), and Manmulsang (Rocks of All Shapes), it is also fun to find and name your own rock. There is a small beach at the end of the wooden deck. From here, you can return by the deck or through the Horyonggok Mountain Forest Trail.

Muui Bada Nurigil

Access on Foot

Somuuido is a small island adjacent to Muuido Island. It is famous as a tourist destination for the Muui Bada Nurigil, built around the island. To enter the island, you have to take a footbridge. At the entrance to the island, there is a sculpture that reads, "Island where everyday life shines." Like the words, Somuuido Island harmonizes the scenery of the sea, mountains, and villages. You can enjoy the clean natural ecology from Ttemurigil and a beautiful view from Bucheo Kkaemigil. The sea resembling the blue sky, spreads out extensively on the two beach roads. There is a pavilion in Ansan Hill where you can relax with the view of the vast sea.

Haeannuri hoguk dondaegil

Access by Car

Deokjinjin Garrison

- 📍 Address: Ganghwa-gun, Incheon
- 🏃 Distance: Approximately 17km
- 🕒 Required Time: Approximately 6 hours

Haeannuri Hoguk Dondaegil is a good course selected by the Ministry of Oceans and Fisheries and the Korea Maritime Foundation. It is also part of the Ganghwa Nadeulgil Course 2. Ganghwado Island has been a safe haven for Korea since ancient times and a gateway for foreign cultures that were exchanged through the sea route. Hoguk Dondaegil is a course where you can see the history of Ganghwado Island. Historic relics such as Gapgot Dondaegil, Yongjinjin Garrison, Hwado Dondaegil, Deokjinjin Garrison, and Chojjin Garrison are located along the trail by the coast. It is a place where the stories of fierce battles to protect the country during the Goryeo and Joseon Dynasties remain.

Access by Car

Mangwol Plains

Gyeryong Dondaegil

- 📍 Address: Ganghwa-gun, Incheon
- 🏃 Distance: Approximately 13.5km
- 🕒 Required Time: Approximately 4 hours

Ganghwa Nadeulgil Course 16 stretches along the west coast of Ganghwado Island. It is a trail to walk along the green fields with the West Sea in the background. In autumn, the areas turn golden, arousing the admiration of the visitors. The trail is almost flat, and the fresh wind will cool off the sweat in the Mangwol Plains, making it great for walking. On this trail, you will find the representative fortifications of Ganghwado Island called 'dondaegil.' These fortifications were checkpoints for enemy attacks and movements in times of foreign aggression during the Joseon Dynasty. This course includes Mangwol Dondaegil, Gyeryong Dondaegil, and Mangyang Dondaegil. If you go up to the dondaegil, you can see the scenery of Ganghwa that people wanted to protect.

Ganghwa nadeulgil course 11

Access by Car

It is convenient to go to Seongmodo Island because it can be accessed by car. Ganghwa Nadeulgil Course 11 is one of the trails where you can explore the island along with the island's sea breeze. Strolling along the trail on the embankment along the sea, you will feel at peace. In particular, at Minmeoru Beach, a well-preserved natural environment, it is excellent to take a break while admiring the beautiful scenery. Also, it is fun to look around the area. The old salt field forms a unique landscape covered with red seepweed. From Bomunsa Temple, the destination, you can look over the entire Seongmodo Island and the West Sea by following the gaze of the Buddha statue carved on the rock.

Wolseonpo Coastal Trail

Gyodongdo Island retains its traces of the past. With the opening of the Gyodong Bridge, transportation has become more convenient. Still, since it is within the Civilian Control Line, you must obtain a pass at a checkpoint before crossing the bridge. When you enter Gyodongdo Island, barbed wire is lined up high above along the trail. Through the barbed wire fence, you can have a clear view of North Korea across the ripples of the sea. If you climb to the top of Hwagaesan Mountain on a clear day, it offers a clear picture of North Korea. Another attraction of the course is located in Daeryong Market. This market was established by refugees during the Korean War and brings back nostalgic memories such as old signboards, murals, and sculptures.

A trail to meoreume, a village near the sea

Ganghwa nadeulgil course 10

Requires ID Access by Car

Sometimes simply walking around the island, and appreciating nature, can be comforting. Ganghwa Nadeulgil Course 10, another way to explore Gyodongdo Island, is full of colorful nature. Meoreume is the name of a natural village in Dongsan-ri. Initially, it was called Dusan-dong, the largest village, but it was misinterpreted when the name was changed to the native Korean word, "Meorimoe," and became "Meoreume." The way to Meoreume is full of friendly images of the countryside, such as the quiet port of Juksanpo Port, the vast Gyodong Plain, and the green trails of Sujeongsan Mountain. In particular, Nanjeong Reservoir, reminiscent of a vast lake, and the sunflower field are famous.

Yeongheung ingnyeonggungil simnipo haeangil

Access by Car

Simnipo Beach

Yeongheungdo and Seonjaedo Islands have Yeongheung-ingnyeonggungil, which is an easy-to-walk trail. It is said that Prince ingnyeonggungil, a royal family of Goryeo, fled here based on the prenotation that the country would collapse. Among the 17 courses, Simnipo Haeangil (coastal trail) is a walking trail along Simnipo Beach. A wooden deck is built along the cliff next to the beach. On the deck road, a unique landscape unfolds in harmony with the sea, fantastically shaped rocks, and seashore rocks. Songdo International City and Incheon Bridge can be seen across the sea. If you climb up the stairs at the end of the deck, you will find an observatory where you can see the whole view of Simnipo Beach.

Incheon dullegil course 6

Access by Car

It is a trail along the Jangsuecheon Stream that runs from the artificial lake of Incheon Grand Park to Soraepo-gu. You can hear clear water running as sunlight rushes in through the shade. The water quality was deteriorated due to the inflow of domestic sewage. It has been recovered with the efforts of Incheon citizens. When you walk here, the salty smell will waft through the air. It means that it is close to Sorae Marsh Ecological Park. This site was created to restore the tidal flats, valleys, and abandoned salt fields as habitats for living organisms and migratory birds. Viewing the reed fields and windmills, you can observe various marine plants in the wetland and relax.

Wolmisan dullegil

- 📍 Address : Incheon Jung-gu
- 🚶 Distance: Approximately 2.3km
- 🕒 Required Time: Approximately 40 minutes

It is a walking trail to go around the hillside of Wolmisan Mountain. It is excellent for enjoying the scenery of Wolmisan Mountain, which changes variously in each season. Some parts of the trail are turned into galleries in the forest. About 200 photographs introducing the nature of Incheon are exhibited. The theme of the pictures changes every quarter. In addition, the well-paved road is lined with decomposed granite soil, 2-3m in width, so you can enjoy nature even better. Wolmi Park is developed around a mountain to offer many things to enjoy. In particular, the 'Korean Traditional Garden,' which reproduces the typical garden style of the Joseon Dynasty, offers pleasure through beautiful scenery and interactive events.

A path with a spectacular view of trees and fantastically shaped rocks

Horyonggoksan forest park

Horyonggoksan Mountain is the tallest mountain on Muuido Island. The whole mountain is a forest park, and there are various trails. Many people take the course that leads to the top. It is built along a slow forest path at the foot of the mountain. Fantastically shaped rocks such as Gorae Bawi (Whale Rock), Madang Bawi (Large and Flat Rock), and Bucheo Bawi (Buddha Rock) formed a superb view. Pines and oaks established a dense forest. The green woods and unknown wildflowers are the charms of this road. Just continue to walk, and you will reach the top in no time. The sky and the sea join at a distance, and you can enjoy the panoramic view of Muuido Island, Somuuido Island, and surrounding islands.

Manisan chiyuui supgil

Access by Car

The Chiyuui Supgil (healing forest trail), located at the beginning of Manisan Mountain, is a slow trail where everyone, from children to the elderly, can walk easily. Straight pines and cedars emit phytoncide. It is excellent to take a walk in the refreshing forest and enjoy the atmosphere of the seasons. You can also enjoy the story of Dangun (mythical progenitor of Korean people) related to Manisan Mountain. Dangun Playground, Cheonbuiin Square, Chamseongdan Altar, and the Korean Spirit 'Eol' Experience Center are in the middle of the course. The center introduces the myth of Dangun and the meaning of his humanitarian ideal, 'Hongik Ingan.' In addition, there is a forest experience program that allows you to communicate with nature through Manisan gymnastics and meditation.
